

Prof. Dr. Antonio Montero Matamala:

Professor Montero is:

- Senior Lecturer in the University of Lleida (UDL), Spain
- Director of the Department of Surgery of the University of Lleida, Spain
- Clinical Director of the Anesthesiology, Intensive Care and Pain Clinic Services of the Public Health Hospitals of Lleida, Spain
- Director of the Territorial Pain Treatment Units. Lleida, Spain
- Director of the Center for Skills and Clinical Simulation in the Faculty of Medicine. Lleida University, Spain
- Coordinator of the Musculoskeletal Pain Working Group of the Spanish Pain Society.
- Past President of the Catalan Society of Pain
- Elected Academic Member of the Royal Academy of Medicine of Catalonia. Spain.
- Professor in the Master in Health Management. MEC
- Professor in the Master in Pain Unit Management. Pompeu Fabra University of Barcelona

From the educational and scientific point of view:

- Professor in more than 160 courses and seminars.
- Author in 32 chapters in books.
- Principal researcher in 22 projects.
- Author of 79 articles in national and 30 international journals
- He has given 192 national and 54 international lectures
- Director of 11 Doctoral Theses.

Membership of Scientific Societies:

Member of the Spanish Pain Society

Member of the IASP

Member of the Catalan Pain Society

Member of the European Regional Analgesia Society

Member of the Spanish Society of Anesthesiology